Acknowledgment

The study would not have been successful without the help of the following great people:

To his adviser, Ms. Sharina Carla S. Merculio and to his critic, Prof. Gina Tagasa, who guided him in his thesis, carefully reviewed the manuscript and corrected its content until the very last detail to produce a comprehensive study;

To the Research Coordinator, Ms. Daisy O. Casipit, for pushing him so hard to finish his study;

To Dr. Mark Anthony Moyano, the researcher really appreciates the way he motivated and guided him in this course and for introducing him the world of Literature;

To all his teachers in his college days, who molded his ability and guided him to who he is now;

To his family, without their support and encouragement to do his thesis, this wouldn't be possible, for being patient with him to every second of sleepless nights to reach the deadlines for the revisions;

To all his friends, in this university, peers and church mates, who believed in him, and who were his confidants in time when he shared the same moments of hardships for the past years;

To his participants, without their shared knowledge and insights, this study would literally be non-existent, and for all your time and effort to help in this study.

DEDICATION

To God

Above all else

And to his parents,

Evangeline and Teodorico Gatdula

For everything he learned

He first learned it from them.
