ACKNOWLEDGMENT

The preparation and completion of this study is attributed to the knowledge and wisdom of several people whose contribution for the accomplishment of this study is in great extent. Sincere thanks and profound gratitude are due them for they have unselfishly shared their precious time, efforts, knowledge, expertise and inspiring thoughts. Indeed, without them this paper would not have made possible.

First and foremost to her family, to her parents Dante B. Agustin and Evelyn G. Agustin who serves as her inspiration to finish her degree, to her siblings Romina A. Gadon, Reggie G. Agustin, Melissa A. Quinto, Roderick G. Agustin who gives their unconditional support in all aspects especially her brother Dan Aris G. Agustin who support her study from the very beginning and give an unconditional and unending support to her financially and morally.

To her adviser Sir Robinson Z. Lumontod III for his unconditional support and assistance throughout the study, To her critic Sir Angelo R. Dullas for his constructive criticisms and suggestions for improvement, To Ma'am Bessie Mae C. Belsa who serves as her Department's Research Coordinator on her defense for her guidance, suggestions and assistance. These people lend their kindness and precious time to the author during preparation, improvement up to completion of this study – to them the author has incurred a remarkable obligation – more than what can be acknowledged.

To her best friend Jonalyn C. Seastres who serves as her partner in everything that is happening to her life, for always supporting and comforting her, through thick or thin this person is always with her, thank you girl!

To her best of friends also known as her roommates, Rosemarie R. Imana Lhorilei A. Sison, Hanna Eunice B. Javier, Faralyn A. Valdez, to ate Jamaica Rodrigo, ate Rayeth Robeniol, Mary Grace Magana, and Shalili Daileg, to her fake daughter Ara Danica Mandia, for their love and support, for taking care of her and supporting her every time thank you.

To her college friends, Kennexan Paul Padua, Juliebeth Milar, Pamela Federico, Jovelyn Zambrano, her college life is not complete without these people. To her thesis buddies turned out friend Ednaly Ferrer and Marjorie Ancheta, for always asking her to do their study together so that they can finish together.

To someone who serves as her another inspiration, for inspiring her for almost four years, this person may not know that he became part of her life but he really make the a big impact to her, to be motivated enough to finish her study thank you.

To those people who look down on her thank you, for looking down in her she became stronger and gives her motivation to prove that she is not what you think she is, she is much more better than what you think.

To all the respondents of this study for giving their time to answer the questionnaires, and to those people who help the researcher to find the respondents, she may not be able to mention all your names but she is really thankful to all of you.

And above all, to our God Almighty, who gives her strength in every battle she is facing, for always guiding her throughout her life, for giving her wisdom and knowledge to finish this study, for giving her courage to face all the struggles, for giving her the victory for all the challenges, disappointments and discouragements that she's been through. Thank you Lord, I love you.

ABSTRACT

AGUSTIN, CHRISTINE GRACE G., Department of Psychology, College of Arts and Sciences, Central Luzon State University, Science City of Muñoz, Nueva Ecija, Philippines, JUNE 2018, ACADEMIC RESILIENCE AND NEED FOR COGNITION AMONG EXTENDED STUDENTS OF CLSU

Adviser: ROBINSON Z. LUMONTOD III

Co-Adviser: ANGELO R. DULLAS

This study examined correlations between Academic Resilience and Need for Cognition. In total, one hundred thirteen extended students (age 21 to 23, 39 were male and 74 were female), took part of the study distributed by researcher among extended college students of CLSU. Pearson-r correlation, and descriptive statistic were used to examine the relationship of Academic Resilience and Need for Cognition, Results shows that there is a negative high significant but weak relationship between Academic Resilience and Need for Cognition.

Key words: Academic Resilience, Need for Cognition, Extended Students.
